

Cypripedium fasciculatum

PURPLE LADY'S-SLIPPER

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Righter

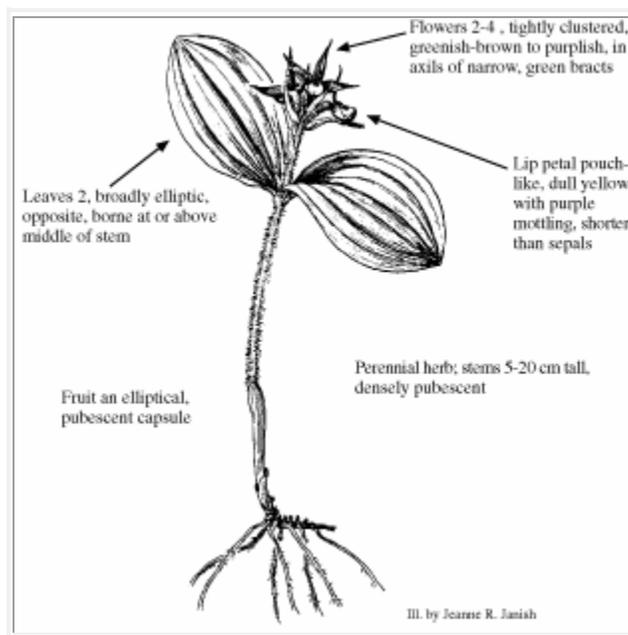

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Cypripediaceae (Lady's Slipper Family)

Look Alikes: C. calceolus var. parviflorum has a large yellow lip petal and leafier stems. Epipactis gigantea has taller stems and 3 or more alternate leaves.

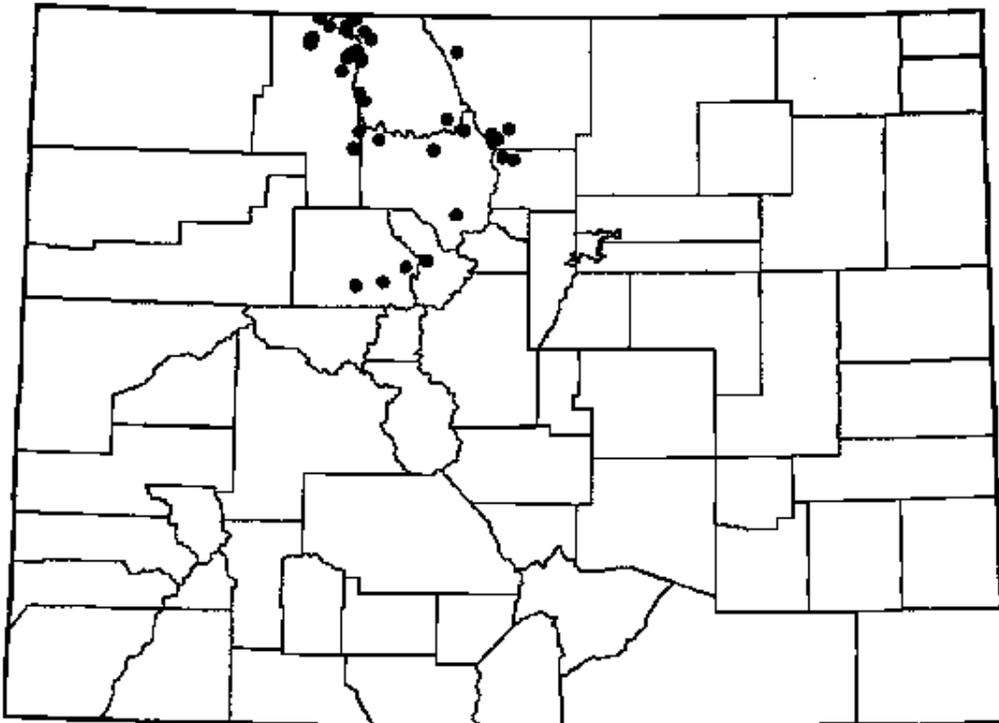

Flowering/Fruiting Period: June-July.

Habitat: Open to densely shaded lodgepole pine or less frequently spruce-fir forests. Elev. 8000-10,500 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Righter

Distribution: California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Utah and Colorado (Boulder, Eagle, Grand, Jackson, Larimer, Routt and Summit Cos.).

References: Cronquist et al. 1977; Fertig 1994b.

