

Gilia stenothyrsa

NARROW-STEM GILIA

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

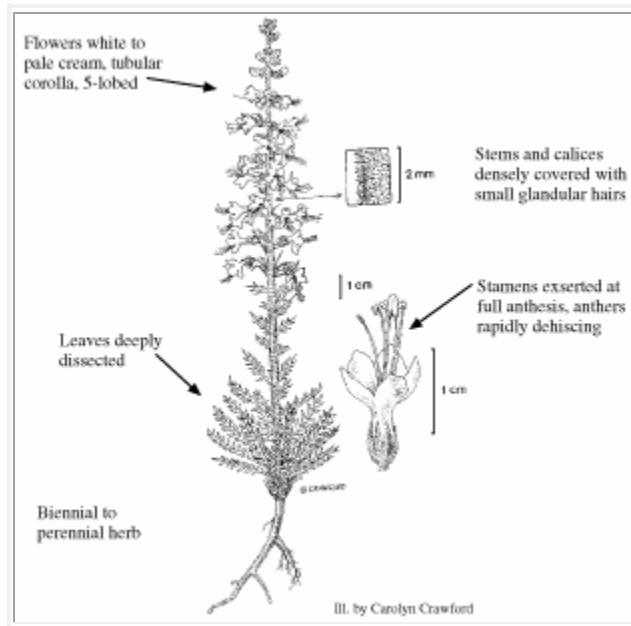

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Polemoniaceae (Phlox Family)

Look Alikes: G. stenothyrsa is the only Gilia with cream-colored flowers.

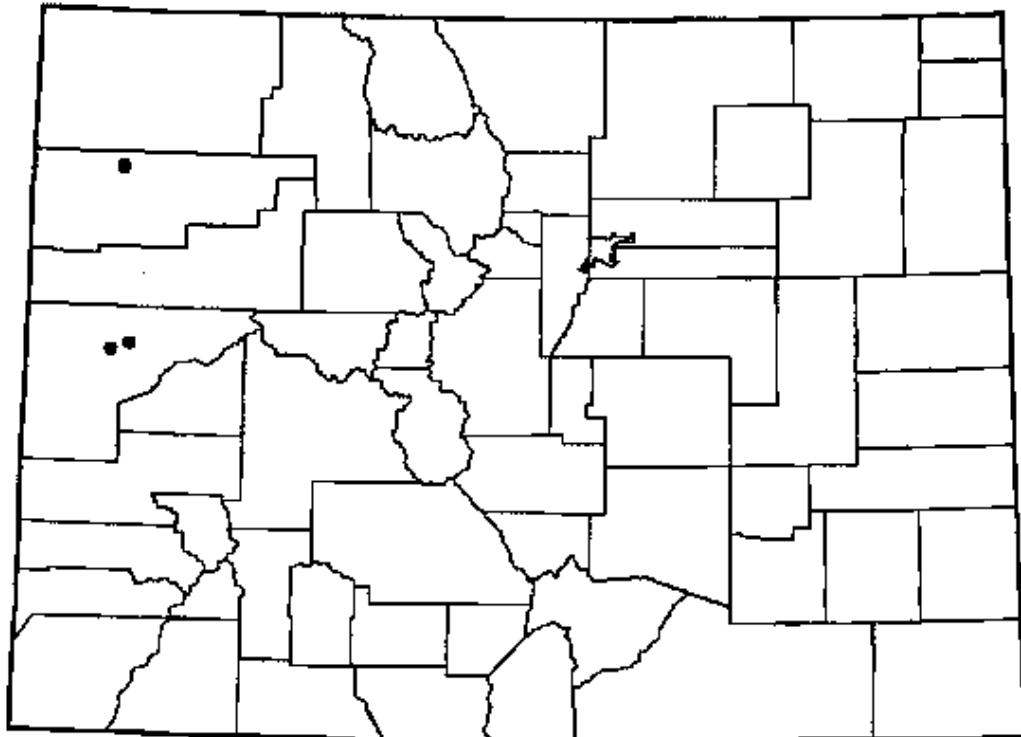

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Late May-June/late June-early July.

Habitat: Silty to gravelly loam soils derived from the Green River or Uinta Formations. In grassland, sagebrush, mountain-mahogany, or pinyon-juniper communities. Elev. 5000-6000 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by C. Crawford

Distribution: Utah and Colorado (Mesa and Rio Blanco Cos.).

References: Cronquist et al. 1984; Peterson and Baker 1982.

