

Cypripedium calceolus ssp. parviflorum

YELLOW LADY'S-SLIPPER

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

Cypripediaceae (Lady's Slipper Family)

Synonyms: Cypripedium pubescens, C. parviflorum

Look Alikes: C. fasciculatum has small purple or dull brown-purple flowers. Calypso bulbosa has a single pink flower and a single leaf.

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers June-July.

Habitat: Aspen groves and ponderosa pine/Douglas-fir forests. Elev. 7400- 8500 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

Distribution: Yukon east to Newfoundland, south to Louisiana, Arizona and New Mexico. Colorado in Clear Creek, Custer, Douglas, El Paso, Huerfano, Jefferson, La Plata, Larimer, Las Animas, Montrose, Park and Pueblo Cos.

References: Harrington 1954; Sheviak 1995; Welsh et al. 1993.