

Erigeron lanatus

WOOLLY FLEABANE

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Martin

Asteraceae (Sunflower Family)

Look Alikes: Distinguished from other taxa by its apetiolate leaves, which narrow to the base with at least some of them 3-toothed at the apex.

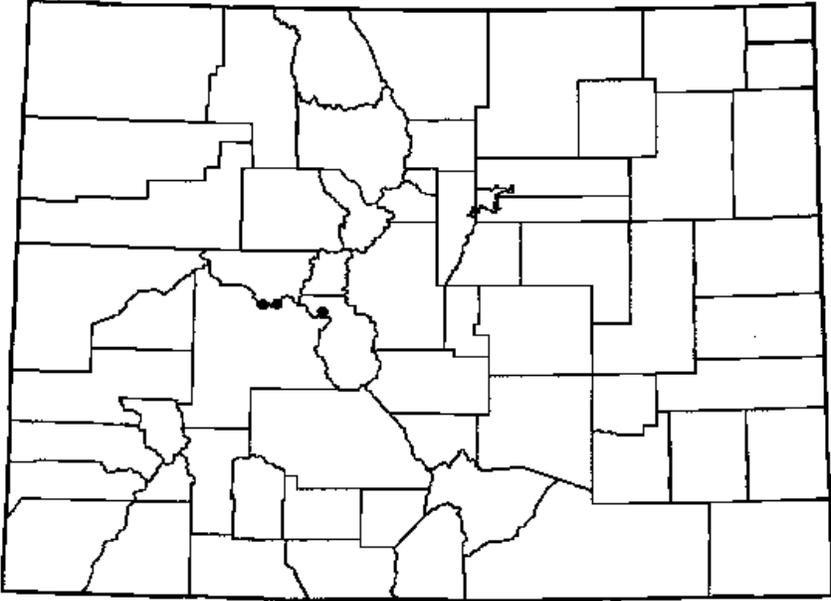

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers late July-August.

Habitat: Steep alpine scree and talus slopes. Elev. 12,500-13,500 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Spackman

Distribution: British Columbia, S Alberta, NW Montana. Disjunct in Wyoming and Colorado (Chaffee, Gunnison and Pitkin Cos.).

References: Fertig 1994b; Spackman et al. 1995.