

Primula egaliksensis

GREENLAND PRIMROSE

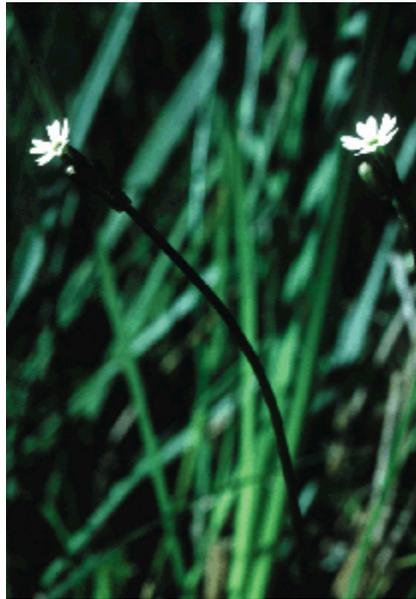

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

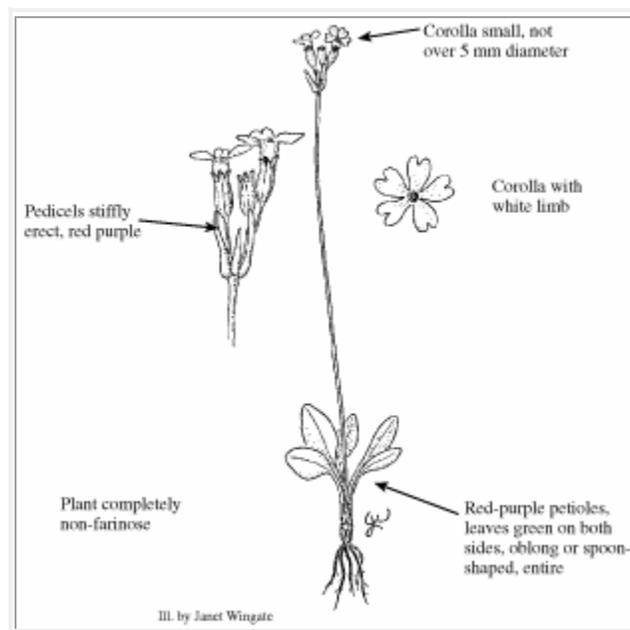

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Primulaceae (Primrose Family)

Look Alikes: P. incana is taller, more robust, has larger flowers, and green leaf pedicels. P. incana also has leaves, upper stem and calyx which are usually white-farinose, at least when young, and small teeth near the leaf apex.

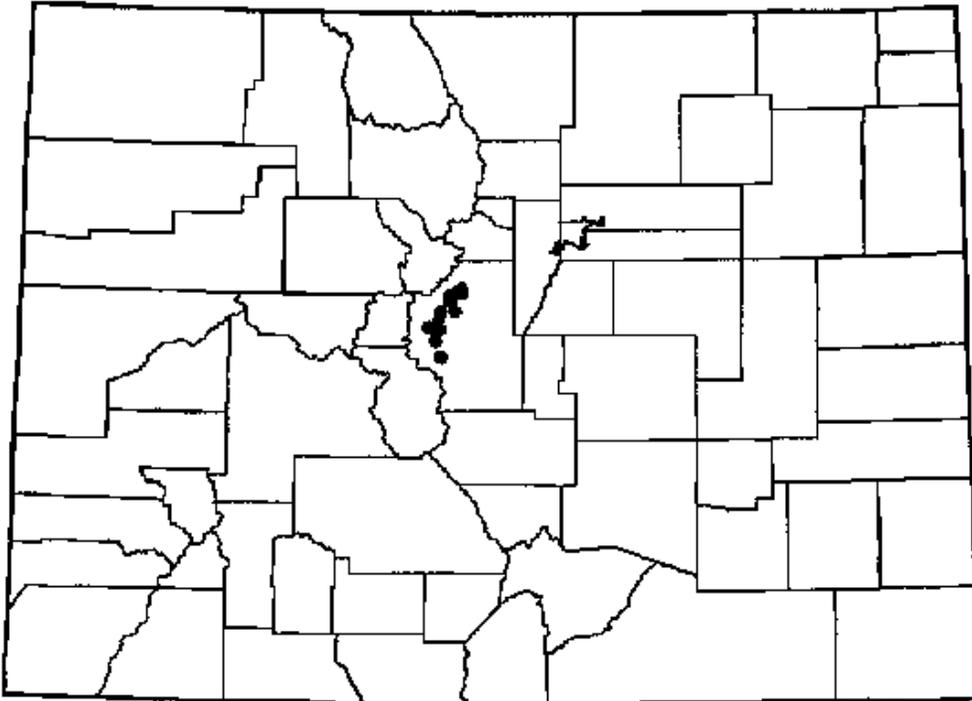

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers June-July.

Habitat: Wet meadows, streambanks, willow carrs and rich fens, on hummocks.
Elev. 9000-9800 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by J. Sanderson

Distribution: Alaska, Yukon, east to Labrador and Greenland, south to British Columbia; disjunct in Wyoming and Colorado (Park Co.).

References: Hultén 1968; Welsh 1974.